6142 GANGES FIVE POINT ROAD
SHILOH, OH 44878

Good morning everyone,

This early Monday morning everything is quiet except the tick of the clock. It is not raining anymore, so maybe the rain is over.

Yesterday, it rained off and on and most of the day. It measured 9/10 of an inch which we were very glad for. Seems like we have not had a rainy day like that in months. Old saying is "it won't winter until the creeks are full", so hopefully we will get a lot of rain.

Today I want to dig my Dahlia Bulbs and for a few reasons... Maybe they will dig easier after the rain and a cold front is moving in. It's supposed to be 25* till the evening, our nice fall days are coming to an end. But no complaints, we had many beautiful warm days this fall. Our 3 grandsons helped me a bit after school. While cleaning out my garden I thought maybe my garden is too big but with all the extra green beans I planted that did not go to waste, as always someone could use them.

Last weekend all our children were home. The ones from PA and IN were here a few days, most of the men and boys went hunting. And one of the days us ladies went to Columbus thrift shopping. We had a van pulling an enclosed trailer, which was filled till we came home. We had anything from clothing, boots, shoes, furniture, toys for the children and even helpful items to use in a special class ed classroom for teacher Beatrice students. Was an interesting day.

Sunday morning, we had 19 people at our house for the night, and breakfast plus our 3 great grandchildren, and all getting ready for church! I fried bacon in the oven, scrambled eggs, cereal, and fruit. Some of the last ones eating decided they need more eggs, they offered to fix their own, and paper plates were saved to save the dishes...and yes, we made it to church on time. Then for lunch we had a carry in haystack, was a nice day, most of the children filled their plates and sat outside to eat.

This morning once it's day light Harvey wants to see what he can do about a steer that is on the loose. Last night about dark we got a call from a neighbor saying that they seen a steer outside the fence, it's about 20 miles from here. We believe it could be the steer that has been out for 2 months already when a dead ash tree had fallen on the fence. He is as wild as a deer, maybe soon he will be made into burger.

This week he also wants to screen and store all his compost inside for the winter. He has a few more orders to fill this fall and all the rest gets stored inside. Anyone needing raised bed garden mix, he now has a mix that has been tried and proven. Which will be bagged in the spring for whoever needs some.

Fresh cut flower season is past, hopefully we'll have some next year. Again, does anyone have vases you want to get rid of? Let me know.

Christmas is approaching and soon another year gone by. We were at son Wilsons farm last week and saw 3 fat geese running around. I decided maybe we can fix those for our holiday meal instead of turkey.

"Because of hope, He gave us life."

5 SPONGES

There are Five sponges laying on the counter. Each member of your family has been cleaning up different areas of your home, but all the sponges look the same. You are curious as to what was cleaned, but you cannot tell by looking. They all look the same. What do you do?

As you squeeze the first sponge you see that root beer comes out, and you decide that someone cleaned the kitchen.

Upon squeezing the second sponge, you find tub and tile cleaner. That one was used for the bathroom.

In the third sponges you find motor oil. Someone cleaned the garage.

In the fourth sponge, baby powder puffs out. The baby's nursery was cleaned with that one. In the last sponge is floor wax. That was the one you used on the hall floor.

As you lay the last one down, you look again at their similarity. They all look the same until they are squeezed.

As life squeezes us, different things may come out: anger, revenge, tears, remorse, greed, untruth, lust, or the love of Christ.

Ask yourself, if I were squeezed, would Jesus and Jesus alone shine forth? Just like the sponge, we can only squeeze out what is put in. Stay in the word daily and be in continuous prayer so when life puts the squeeze on you, Jesus and Jesus alone will shine forth.
